POETRY BY STUDENTS

Two hours between classes. The short Metro ride home.
Coffee table, plates, glasses, the TV flickering afternoon news, sometimes a car bomb...
And in the kitchen the singular tune of his voice, his jokes, recounting this or that—plot of a novel, book he's put down,
I bought for his monthly fix (how he'd love reading in the park what I took half an hour to choose). Above all, the sofa: digestion a nap,
my head nestled in his lap.
